Re: United States v. Kamar Boatman
Criminal No. 5:18-CR-185 (NAM)

Dear Judge Dancks:

The United States opposes the defendant's request for a second detention hearing. The defendant has not provided the Court with any change in the defendant's circumstances providing a legal basis for a second detention hearing. Since the defendant's arrest on a criminal complaint, the defendant has been charged by indictment. The United States has provided extensive discovery and there is a pending motion filed by the defense.

There is no legal basis that has been provided by the defendant for a second detention hearing and the Court should deny this request.

Very truly yours,

GRANT C. JAQUITH
United States Attorney
